Event Draws Hundreds of Job Hunters and 55 Businesses to Brookhaven Town Hall

Farmingville, NY - On June 26, over 600 residents attended the third annual JobHaven.org Job Fair held at Brookhaven Town Hall. The free event, which was sponsored by the Division of Economic Development and the Brookhaven Business Advisory Council (BBAC), gave job hunters the opportunity to meet face-to-face with representatives from 55 companies in and around Brookhaven who are looking to hire qualified candidates for a wide range of positions. Pictured left to right are Supervisor Ed Romaine, BBAC Board members Reeni Brill and Sandy Rosenberg, Deputy Director of the Brookhaven Town Industrial Development Agency James Tullo, BBAC Chairman Henry Bramwell, Director of the Brookhaven Town Division of Economic Development and CEO of the Brookhaven Industrial Development Agency Lisa Mulligan and BBAC Board member Brian Cohen.

Supervisor Ed Romaine said, "Helping people find good paying jobs is another way that the Town can work with the private sector to stimulate the local economy. I commend the BBAC for giving so many residents the opportunity to network and meet with company representatives who are actively recruiting candidates for employment."
